Dear SAORA Community,

We are certain that by now, you are aware of the incident that happened last week between Roedean and King David Linksfield.

Roedean's rich diversity of culture, race and religion, is a source of pride, and we, as SAORA, reject all forms of discrimination. We assure you that we are working hard to ensure that the core values of the school are upheld.

Now is the time, more than ever, for our community of old girls to come together, to support the students, the staff and the legacy of our beloved Roedean. Together, we can help the school to realign with the values of Truth, Honour, Freedom and Courtesy.

It is unclear as to how long the ISASA investigation will take, so we do ask for your patience and grace until the investigation is concluded. Thereafter, we, as a committee, can help the school navigate a constructive way forward.

Kind regards,

Pam Hayward
SAORA President
